

THE WAYSIDE

830 Shredan Road, Winnetka

This comfortable brick house facing Lake Michigan in an exclusive Chicago suburb was the residence of Henry Demarest Lloyd, a critic of the nation's industrial monopoly during the 1880s and 1890s. Lloyd was chief editorial writer for the Chicago Tribune from 1880 to 1885 and in 1894 authored Wealth Against Commonwealth, a landmark in the history of antimonopolism in America.